NOTES

The Oakland Volume of Proceedings will be off the press about February 10 and will be delivered from Chicago at the rate of seven hundred a day. If any member has not received his volume by March 10, please notify the office of the Secretary.

The Yearbook will not be ready for delivery until the latter part of February, and should be in the possession of all the members by the 15th of March.

The monograph on "The Place of Religion in Education" contains 134 pages. It may be obtained from the Secretary at thirty cents a copy. We are confident that this monograph will play an important part in the solution of this vexed question.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Every superintendent, state, county, or city, should be present at the Detroit meeting if physically able to attend. Call the attention of your Board of Education to these meetings, and, if you can induce at least one member to attend with you, it will not only make your work easier during the coming years, but it will help the schools as well. Speak to the Board of the special session at which school-board matters will be discussed by representatives from one ocean to the other. It will be worth while for a representative of the Board to examine by comparison the various lines of school equipment, which will be found in our commercial exhibit. The seventh and eighth grades are the problem grades in the schools of today. Attendance upon the discussions which will be held on these subjects will help a board member to appreciate the suggestions you may make, which will be of assistance to you in furthering any of your plans looking toward their reorganization.

This program has much in it that will interest others besides superintendents and school-board members. If some member of the teaching staff from every system could be present to study the various presentations made from the standpoint of the classroom teacher, it could not help but be beneficial to the schools. In fact, the program is one that should appeal to every person engaged in teaching, but, of course, it would not be practicable for all of the superintendents to close all of the schools in order that all of the teachers might receive the benefit which they would derive from attending the meetings, but certainly one representative should be present.

NEW YORK MEETING

The American Library Association has decided to hold its meeting next summer at Asbury Park from June 26 to July 1, the week immediately preceding our meeting in New York City. The date and location were chosen in order that the large number of teachers who are interested in the work of that Association and the work of the Library Department of our Association may be privileged to attend both meetings.

Arrangements for the summer meeting of the National Education Association, which will be held in New York City, July 3 to 8, 1916, are progressing finely. The committee which was chosen to have charge of securing sufficient committees to look after the convention has had several meetings and has its work well under way. The sub-committee on advance memberships is planning an aggressive campaign of one week, at which time an effort will be made thruout the entire state to secure the largest advance enrolment that the Association has ever had for any meeting. The general committee to arrange for the annual convention of the National Education Association has been organized with Hon. John Purroy Mitchel, Mayor of New York, as honorary chairman, and Hon. Charles B. Alexander, Regent of the University of the State of New York, as active chairman. Mr. Alexander has called to his assistance about two hundred of the most prominent men and women in New York, representing the various activities of that metropolitan city.

As announced in our December Bulletin, the headquarters will be established at the Astor House for New York and the New England States, at the Waldorf Astoria for Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and the Southeastern States, and at the McAlpin for the Middle and Western States. Our April Bulletin will contain detailed announcements concerning the plans for the meeting.

THRIFT

The public-school contest on the subject of "Thrift" closes with January. The various schools that have had essay contests should select the three best essays, sending them to the county school commissioner, unless the schools are in cities of four thousand population or over. The county school commissioner will select the five best essays from the schools in the county and send them to the state superintendent. At the same time, each city superintendent in a place of between four thousand and ten thousand population will send the best essay to the state superintendent. In cities between ten and fifty thousand, the two best essays will be sent. In cities of from fifty to one hundred thousand population, the three best essays, and in cities of over one hundred thousand population, four essays will be sent, with an additional one for each additional one hundred thousand population.

During the month of February, all of the essays that are to go to county superintendents should be rated so that they may reach them by March 1. The county and the city superintendent should select those that are to go to the state superintendent sometime during the month of March, so that the state superintendent may receive them by the first of April. The selection of the ten best essays from the state will be made during the month of April, so that the month of May can be used by the central office in determining the winners thruout the entire country. From the reports which have been received by the Secretary, it is probable that not less than twenty thousand school children have already written on the subject.

In the adult contest, entrants have been received from all states, and the number of essays will be practically the same as we received last year in our religious essay contest. Numbers will be given the various readers on February 1, and all essays in the adult class must be in the possession of the Secretary not later than March 1.

DEPARTMENT OF SUPERINTENDENCE

RAILWAY ARRANGEMENTS

The Central Passenger Association, the Trunk Line Association, the New England Passenger Association, the Southeastern Passenger Association, and the Wetern Passenger Association will all offer open rates for the Detroit meeting. The Central Passenger Association, within whose territory Detroit is situated, has granted a two-cent-a-mile rate upon which each of the other Associations will base their rates. These tickets will be on sale February 19, 20, and 21, and will be good returning to reach the original starting point not later than March 1. In some cases, the reduction applies only from stations where regular tariffs are on file and thru tickets are in stock. Other stations will require at least forty-eight hours' notice to the ticket agent in order that the tickets may be obtained from the passenger department of the railroad interested. It is suggested that persons should consult their local ticket agents at least one week in advance of the meeting, so that, in case any misunderstanding has arisen, it may be cleared up in time for the reduced rates to be secured. The Southwestern Passenger Association will sell tickets February 18, 19, and 20 from points in Missouri and Kansas under their jurisdiction and from the western points in Texas, and from other places in their territory on the 19th, 20th, and 21st. The Trans-Continental Passenger Association announces that their regular nine-months' tourist ticket approximates two cents a mile or about one and one-third fare for the round trip, and advises the members living in that territory to use it as the cheapest obtainable rate.

DETROIT NOTES

Detroit uses eastern time. Persons in attendance upon the meeting will please bear that in mind. Situated within the territory of railroads using central time, the local time will be one hour ahead of most of your watches.

Hotels Statler and Tuller have been announced as joint headquarters. They are one block off Woodward Avenue, the main thorofare of the city, and about one-half mile from the Arcadia, where the main meetings of the department will be held.

It was impossible to secure a single place large enough for our commercial exhibit. It will, therefore, be divided between the Roof Garden of the Hotel Tuller and the Convention Hall Floor of the Pontchartrain. The exhibit this year will be fully up to the standard of the others which we have held.

The registration will be held as follows: Monday and Tuesday, we will register at the Pontchartrain as well as at the Statler. This is to accommodate those persons who have hotel asignments in the neighborhood of the Pontchartrain and who may desire to attend the meetings that are held elsewhere than at the Statler. Registration headquarters will be open at the Statler from Sunday noon, February 20, until Friday evening, February 25.

The envelope which will be received on registration will contain not only the program but a booklet which has been issued by the Board of Education, and one from the Detroit Board of Commerce, and several cards of invitation to representative industrial and commercial institutions of the city.

The Detroit Women Principals' Club will tender an informal reception at the Hotel Tuller, Tuesday afternoon, February 22, from four to six o'clock, to which all members are invited.

The Twentieth Century Club of Detroit will tender a reception to the women visitors at the home of the Twentieth Century Club, corner Witherell and Columbia Streets, Wednesday afternoon, from four to six o'clock.

There will be a gymnastic demonstration participated in by both boys and girls of the grade and high schools of Detroit under the direction of Ethel Perrin, Director of Physical Training, Public Schools, in the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium, Wednesday afternoon, at half-past four o'clock. About four hundred school children will participate in the various exercises that will be given.

The Detroit Museum of Art contains a goodly collection of valuable paintings and sculpture. A reception will be tendered the members of the Association during the week and it is probable that it will be held Thursday afternoon, at half-past four.

In addition to the dinners listed in the program, we have received notices of the following:

The dinner of the University of Chicago alumni will be held Tuesday at six o'clock at the Hotel Tuller, and the dinner of the Columbia University alumni will be held Tuesday at six o'clock at the Hotel Statler.

The Western Michigan Round Tables will dine at the Statler on Thursday at six o'clock, and the directors of educational research will dine at the same hotel at the same time.

A number of other dinners are in process of arrangement and the times and places will be indicated on our program.

The Detroit committee having in charge the arrangements for the meeting of the Association consists of: Charles E. Chadsey, Superintendent of Schools, General Chairman; Frank L. Cody, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, in charge of hotels and rooming places; J. Lee Barrett, Secretary, Detroit Convention and Tourists Bureau, in charge of meeting places; Rachel McKinney, President, Detroit Women Principals' Club, in charge of social affairs; J. H. Trybom, Director of Manual Training, in charge of school exhibits; S. A. Courtis, Supervisor of Department of Educational Research, and E. L. A larger advance hotel registration than usual has been made. However, Detroit can take care of all that may come, even tho advance reservations have been overlooked. While we list in this Bulletin the various Detroit hotels, if you desire to make advance reservations and have not already done so, it is suggested that you write directly to Assistant Superintendent Cody, of Detroit, telling him the kind of reservation you desire, and he will take care of you. If you do not make a reservation in advance, you will find Mr. Cody and his committee at the Hotel Statler ready to furnish you with the information which you will need when you arrive.
