PART II

TERCENTENARY CELEBRATION

ART COMPETITION

Twelve art schools to-day announced an offer of seventeen scholarships to high-school student artists throughout the United States, in honor of the high-school tercentenary in 1935.

Any boy or girl in the secondary schools may compete for these scholarships by submitting original creative work in graphic arts to the committee for the eleventh annual Scholastic Awards, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Winners and several hundred runners-up will be included in the second International High-School Art Exhibit conducted by Scholastic, national high-school weekly, in the Fine Arts Galleries of Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, next spring.

The schools which offer the scholarships include: New York School of Fine and Applied Art, New York City; The Art Institute of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois; Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Vesper George School of Art, Boston, Massachusetts; Columbus School of Art, Columbus, Ohio; Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, New York; The Cleveland School of Art, Cleveland, Ohio; California School of Arts and Crafts, Oakland, California; Moore Institute of Art, Science, Industry, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Art School of Detroit Society of Arts and Crafts, Detroit, Michigan; Dayton Art Institute, Dayton, Ohio; Rudolf Schaefer School of Design, San Francisco, California.

ESSAY COMPETITION

This is to urge an aggressive effort to give wide publicity to the essay contest, and to the assembly program feature. Herewith are submitted a few rules of procedure and other suggestions regarding these activities. There are three divisions of the essay contest feature of the celebration: 1. The historical contest, 2. The congratulation-letter contest, 3. The general essay contest.

Rules regarding the essay contest:

1. Essay shall contain not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand words.
2. Essay shall be the work of pupil alone, and he shall certify that he has received no aid from others in its composition.
3. Name and address of pupil shall appear at top of first page.
4. There shall be three steps to the contest: (a) In the local high school, (b) Within the state, and (c) National. Each school may determine the procedure for conducting the local contest, may award such prize or prizes as seem proper, and will submit one essay to the committee appointed to judge the state contest. Each state shall submit two essays to the committee appointed to judge the national contest. This committee shall select in order the ten best essays.
5. Judges: Each school may use its own method of judging essays submitted in the local contest. Judges for the state contest will be chosen from the editorial staff of The Scholastic Magazine.
6. Essays submitted for the local contest must be in the hands of the judges by February first, 1935; for the state contest, by March first, 1935; and for the national contest, by April first, 1935.
7. Essays shall be typewritten on paper approximately 8½ x 11 in size, double spaced.
8. Only one essay may be submitted in any one contest, but the same person may compete in all three contests.
9. Essay must be pupil's own work. Pupil submitting essay must so certify, at close of essay, or essay will not be considered.
10. No essays will be returned to writer.
11. Winner of national essay contest in the general division will have expenses paid to Washington, D. C., to receive prize from some government official.
12. In the general division, any subject pertaining to secondary education may be used. "What my high school has done for me," "Does the high school prepare for life?"

"Changes in the program of studies in high schools in the last fifty years," "The high school of the future," "Needed changes in secondary education," are some of the subjects that have been selected.

13. Consult with your local school people, principals, and teachers, regarding bibliography.

14. Address all subsequent correspondence regarding this contest to M. R. Robinson, 155 East Forty-fourth Street, New York City.

LOCAL SCHOOL HISTORY COMPETITION

School, state, and national prizes will be awarded this year for the best history of high-school (or secondary) education in any locality, county, or community of the United States or possessions. The history must be prepared by high-school students.

The writing of these local histories of high-school education are the most important single activity of the celebration year. By studying the origin and growth of the modern high school, students will create a better public understanding of the role of the high school in an industrial democracy.

Histories should contain how the school was established and why; who attended; how costs were met; how the school was controlled and managed; what was studied; when and why new subjects were introduced; social life; how teachers were selected; their duties; the relation of high school to the community, to elementary schools, and to colleges.

It is suggested that one history in each school be prepared under the supervision of the heads of the history and English departments.

Obtain materials from official records, correspondence, and interviews with old residents.

Histories should be prepared neatly, typewritten, illustrated, and, if possible, bound. Illustrations will include photographs, charts of costs, studies, attendance, drawings of buildings, distinguished teachers, and school equipment.

The principal and teachers should select the names of no more than six students to appear on the first page of the history. They may be selected for typewriting, for binding and illustrating, for writing and research, or on any other basis. Students so named will be referred to as the school's history team.

Every member of each school's history team will receive from the Celebration Committee an official certificate of honor, commemorating the 300th anniversary of American high schools.

The members of each team which is accorded first prize for its state will receive beautiful medallions in honor of their services to the high-school celebration.

Prizes are awarded by the Royal Typewriter Company, who are co-sponsors of this project.

Every member of the team which wins first prize for the nation receives a $44.50 Royal Portable Typewriter. Every member of the team which wins second national prize receives a $33 Royal Portable Typewriter. Members of the third prize team each receive a $15 wrist watch. Members of fourth and fifth place teams each receive $5 in cash. Members of sixth to tenth place teams receive $2.50 in cash. If teams tie, duplicate prizes will be awarded. The right is reserved to deny prizes for unmeritorious work.

Every high school represented by a team winning a state prize or any of the ten national prizes will receive a beautiful original block print of the old Boston Latin School, first secondary school of the United States.

Local and state educational, historical, and business organizations are offering additional prizes in the competition.

National and state winners will be chosen by a distinguished jury to be named by the National Celebration Committee.

Histories should be sent by each school to the Celebration Committee, Room 1306, 155 East 44th Street, New York City, N. Y., not later than April 15, 1935.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS

1. Each school should plan and execute its own assembly programs.
2. Pageants appear to receive the greatest amount of interest. A series of scenes, or pantomimes, or a play, showing various steps between the educational scene in the Boston Latin School and the present, (and even the future) are being planned. Read Snedden's "Secondary Schools of 1960".

3. Miscellaneous programs, incorporating short scenes similar to the ones described above, music of the period (three centuries ago and following), reading prize essays, talks by educators familiar with the subject; debates on the value of certain subjects, old and new, have been suggested.

4. The commencement exercises for next June may be shaped to the celebration idea. The program developed by students and teachers, and suited to the needs of the community, is most interesting and appropriate.

National Honor Society
LETTERS

Pipkin Junior High School
V. M. Hardin, Principal
Springfield, Missouri

My dear Sir:

For a project this quarter, the Pipkin Chapter is taking care of the detention room. We are cleaning the yard, washing school supplies as rulers, and dusting the teachers' rooms. Our aim is to make better citizens of our unsocial or thoughtless pupils.

Yours truly,
BETHEL CORDER, Sponsor.

Martinsville Public Schools
M. S. Mahan, Superintendent
Martinsville, Indiana

My dear Sir:

This year we have an active working organization which meets every two weeks. The chapter has complete charge of the school library; it sponsors a scholastic competition between classes and has presented a scholarship trophy to the class with the highest record each six weeks term; it has had complete charge of ushering at all school functions; in general, the members of the society have tried to make themselves useful at all times.

Very truly yours,
LILLIAN HART, Sponsor.

Tuscaloosa Senior High School
Office of Principal
Tuscaloosa, Alabama

My dear Sir:

In the mid-year of the 1932-33 season, the Druid Chapter of the Honor Society (Tuscaloosa Senior High School, Tuscaloosa, Ala.) placed in students' examination books, already filed in advance with teachers, a mimeographed sheet which read as follows:

T Tuscaloosa
Truth
H High Honor
S School
Scholarship

"Neither a borrower nor a lender be;
For loan oft loses both itself and friend
This above all, to thine own self be true."
Neither give nor receive help on examination.

THE HONOR SOCIETY.

This was one of the efforts which the Honor Society made to develop in the students high ideals of truth and honor. It was felt that some progress might be made if the student was reminded of his responsibility immediately before taking each examination. The Honor Society felt that its greatest field for work lay in attempting to raise the standards and ideals of the students of the school to higher levels.

Faculty and student body agreed that results were excellent.

CLARA VERNER, Principal.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Over ten years ago the Department of Secondary-School Principals (then the National Association of Secondary-School Principals) organized the National Honor Society with the end in view of stimulating scholarship in the secondary schools of the United States. To-day there are over fifteen hundred chapters and these are in the best high schools in the country. The four objectives of the society are: to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character. Every high-school principal who has a chapter is enthusiastic over the productive results of this organization in his school. Direct all requests for literature to H. V. Church, 5835 Kimbark Avenue, Chicago.

WARNING

The National Honor Society has met with such great success that imitations are springing up in different parts of the country. These pseudo honor societies seem to have largely a commercial objective, and plan to exploit scholarship for financial ends. Members of our department are warned to beware of any plan to sell pins or emblems to pupils under the guise of scholarship, and are urged not to lend their aid or influence to such organizations.

The Department of Secondary-School Principals recommends only the National Honor Society and the National Junior Honor Society.

FOURTH PRICE LIST OF NATIONAL HONOR EMBLEMS

The prices of emblems were lowered during the summer of 1933, but the NRA code and the rising price of gold has made two subsequent increases necessary. The latest prices are below:

Senior Emblems
14K Charm	$3.63	14K Pin	$2.78
10K Charm	3.00	10K Pin	2.34
Gold Filled Charm	1.60	Gold Filled Pin	1.00

(Our jewelers say gold filled emblems will wear twenty years.)

These are remittance-with-order prices, and are post-paid. Add ten cents an emblem to the above prices if C. O. D. handling is desired. Engraved letters 3c each additional; guard with chain one dollar additional. If a guard is ordered, be sure to state whether a numeral, as '33 or '34, or an initial, is desired. (The C. O. D. fee is 25c up to $10.00; 30c up to $50.00; and to this should be added 25c messenger service, besides the money order fee. It is too expensive to order C. O. D. Do not do it.)

All orders must have the approval of the principal.

Send All Orders to H. V. CHURCH, 5835 Kimbark Avenue, Chicago.

SEALS AND MEMBERSHIP CARDS

Membership Cards—Since the organization of the National Honor Society there has been a growing demand for membership cards in the organization. Cards of membership, both for members of the National Honor Society and for the members of the National Junior Honor Society are now on sale. The cards (2½"x2¼") are engrossed on a fine quality of cardboard, have the emblem of the Society embossed upon them, and require only the insertion of the name of the member.

The price of the cards is five cents apiece.

Seals—The Seal (1¼"x1½") is a gilt embossed sticker to be affixed on the diplomas of members of chapters. A replica of the emblem is embossed on the seal.

The price of the seals is five cents apiece.

NATIONAL HONOR MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATES

In response to repeated demands, the Department of Secondary-School Principals has prepared membership certificates (8½"x11") for members of the National Honor Society. These certificates are lithographed on artificial parchment with the die of a facsimile of the emblem stamped in gold. They sell for fifteen cents apiece post-paid. Direct orders to H. V. CHURCH, 5835 Kimbark Avenue, Chicago.

So many requests for National Honor stationery have come in that a supply is now on hand to meet the demands. This writing material is designed for the use of members and sponsors of the chapters of the National Honor Society. THE NATIONAL JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

The National Junior Honor Society is patterned very closely after the Senior Honor Society. This organization is now a going concern, and already there are a number of chapters, both in senior high schools and junior high schools. CERTIFICATES OF RECOMMENDATION

The Department of Secondary-School Principals has been distributing uniform certificates of recommendation for over ten years. At first they were sent out free to the members of the Department, but the demand for the certificates became so great that the printing and mailing charges became a burden to the treasury. Therefore, a change was made.

The blanks are used in transferring pupils from one secondary school to another and particularly from high school to college. The certificates are sent post-paid at the following prices:

STANDARD HIGH-SCHOOL PERSONAL RECORD BLANKS

The standard record forms which were approved by the Department of Secondary-School Principals at the meeting at Boston are now printed on cardboard suitable for vertical filing systems. This card, 5x8, is especially designed for small and medium size high schools.

Space is provided on these blanks for scholarship records for five years. The extra year is included for pupils of four-year high schools who may desire to do graduate work. It is recommended that six-year junior-senior high schools use separate cards for the records of the junior and of the senior schools.

When the guidance information called for in the lower right hand corner seems to be of a changeable nature, as would often be true of such items as "Vocational Preference" it is suggested that it be written in pencil so that it can be erased and changed when necessary.

BOOK NOTICES

Eastman, Fred. Plays of American Life. New York. Samuel French, 1934. Pp. 258.

Secondary schools have long recognized the difficulty of interpreting American life to their pupils through the textbook material prepared for use in courses in the social studies. To compensate for the deficiency in the text content, instructors frequently resort to supplementary readings and illustrative material, such as films, pictures, cartoons, historical fiction, and the like. The frequent weakness of these supplementary aids is their failure to appeal to the emotions of the pupil. As a result the pupil often is provided no opportunity in the classroom to experience vicariously some of the important issues in American life.

A recent volume entitled Plays of American Life provides a happy solution to the problem stated in the foregoing paragraph. The volume contains eight delightfully written plays true to the life of the American people. The plays are appropriate for dramatic reading or for stage presentation at school assemblies or community meetings. The purpose of the plays is not preachment or propaganda, but the dramatization of issues fundamental to the character of American life. It is the hope of the author that the plays may find a place in social-science courses in secondary schools and that they may be the means of vitalizing certain phases of these courses and of developing genuine feeling and appreciation for phases of true American character frequently treated abstractly and perfunctorily in textbooks and class discussions.

Nichols, Frederick G. The Personal Secretary, Harvard Studies in Education, Vol. XXIII, Cambridge. Harvard University Press, 1934. Pp. 105.

An inquiry as to what "differentiating duties and essential personal traits" are, comprises this valuable little book. The investigation was made under the sponsorship of the American Institute for Secretaries. A study of the many tables and data contained in the book should prove profitable to those intending to be secretaries, those in charge of secretarial training school curricula, and student vocational guidance workers.

The first problem considered is the distinction between the different types of secretaries and their traits. Questionnaires were sent to employers and secretaries. The answers have been tabulated; many replies are further quoted to bring out important points. Secretaries and employers agree that accuracy and intelligence are the most important traits. Private secretaries and employers alike list the following as major duties: (1) Take dictation, (2) Transcribe shorthand, (3) Write original letters, and (4) Handle callers. In regard to education, Mr. Nichols finds that high-school graduates are four times as likely to become secretaries as those who do not finish their secondary education. He also concludes that high schools should not attempt secretarial training courses for this deprives the prospective secretary of time to prepare the necessary educational background.
